I look forward to working with you.

The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act or HIPPA

As a patient utilizing medical massage with Marian Wolfe Dixon, MA, LMT, your health care information is always kept private and confidential.

HIPAA is in place to ensure that your health care providers keep the data collected about your health confidential. Of course, some people may see some or all of your file, such as staff working for your health care provider, other adjunct health care providers and the people who will pay your bill (i.e. insurance claims adjuster). In order to disclose data about you for such reasons as research, intelligence, or public health risk, your provider must have separate written consent.

You have the right to inspect your file, request an amendment, an “accounting disclosures”, or a copy of your medical and billing data. Be aware that there may be a fee for or even a denial of your request in some cases.

This is just a brief overview of HIPPA. For more complete information on HIPPA, visit the official site at www.hhs.gov/ocr/hippa. To file a complaint, you can contact the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services, at the address listed in the same web site.

Attorney Contacts

For motor vehicle accident and workers compensation cases, you will have a much stronger case when you work with a personal injury attorney. For some MVA cases, I require the patient to have a lawyer. If you have not already chosen a good attorney, below are some examples.
